PROGRAM INFORMATION

Perô (or the Mysteries of the Night)

Pero is a beautiful adaptation of the children's book by French writer Michel Tournier.

(Approx. 1 hour in length)

Perô, a baker in the tiny Italian village Fanghetto, closes his shop and stops making bread. Why? Because he has a broken heart. His beloved neighbor Colombina, who he's been in love with since childhood, ran off with the housepainter Palentino. Will she return to the shy Perô or stay with the flashy painter? This award-winning production uses puppets, actors, singers and live musicians to tell this charming story.
