

FAMILY & HUMAN SERVICES PATHWAY

Course 1: CTE Human Development Course 2: CTE Human Services

Pathway information: With a strong tie to service leadership, this is for students who want to make a difference in their community. They learn about counseling and mental health services, family & community services, personal care, education, consumer services, and others related to helping people. This pathway provides knowledge and skills in a range of topics from nutrition & wellness, family studies and human growth & development.

Not all occupations require a college degree.

CERTIFICATIONS & LICENSES

- Certified Childcare Professional
- Child Development Associate
- National Administrator Credential
- National Board Certification - CTE Early Adolescence to Young Adulthood

MEDIAN ANNUAL EARNINGS
BY EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT

\* Industry Certification + Education*

$61,545	Bachelor's Degree
$31,963	Associate's Degree
$29,647	Industry Certification
$26,834	High School Diploma

The MORE you LEARN... the MORE you EARN!

■ Median Hourly Wage
■ Percent of job increase (2014-2024)

