PROGRAM INFORMATION

(PLEASE READ IN ITS ENTIRETY)

Tanaka Farms is a great way to expose students to local agriculture, farm practices, plants, and the product and farm economics through fun and educational tours.

Farm to Table help students to identify nutritious, wholesome food and encourage them to connect with agricultural heritage of California.

Tour activities includes:

Wagon ride around the 30 acre working farm where you will learn about the farm, the fields, and the history of the Tanka family.

Entry into the Petting Zoo

Walk through the Corn Maze

Veggies from the Vegetable Patch (students and child guests only ~ 2 veggies of each type)

And a pumpkin picked from the Pumpkin Patch (students and child guests only ~ up to 20lbs and able to carry it on their own).

Afterward, enjoy a Farm to Table lunch which includes:

Chicken, Seasonal Vegetables, Salad, Fruit, and Bottled water

Nothing tastes better than food at its freshest. Yum!!!
