And Then They Came For Me: Remembering the World of Anne Frank

By James Still
Directed by Abigail Deser

What happens when hate and violence become normalized? This unique theatrical experience combines videotaped interviews with Holocaust survivors Ed Silverberg and Eva Schloss with actors recreating scenes from their lives as young teens during World War II.

Both were friends of Anne Frank's, and we learn firsthand their stories of terrible hardship, survival, and hope against all odds. This production is not just a historic newsreel brought to life on the stage, but also touches on many themes vital to today.

For ages 11+

Due to serious subject matter, this production is not suitable for children under 11.
