Sue Miller Hurst, Principal of Springs' iShine Student Center in Temecula, Succumbs to Cancer

TEMECULA, CA, December 4, 2019 – Springs Charter Schools is saddened to announce the death of Sue Miller Hurst, principal of Springs' iShine Student Center. She died of cancer on Thanksgiving Day. She was an experienced teacher and administrator, and had worked for Springs since 2013. iShine is a TK-8 charter school serving 500 students; among Hurst's accomplishments was overseeing the relocation of the school to superior facilities at 42145 Lyndie Lane in Temecula.

Ben Fitts, iShine's assistant principal, said, "Sue holds a special place in our hearts and she will be forever missed."

Hurst's family has planned a memorial service for Wednesday, December 11, 2 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ Latter-day Saints, 38980 Sky Canyon Drive, Murrieta. Members of the public who knew Hurst are welcome to attend.

Springs Charter Schools are tuition-free, public schools of choice serving more than 9,000 California school children and their parents. Many Springs parents choose to homeschool full-time, while others choose two to five days per week of a blended model that includes classroom instruction with home study. Springs serves students in student centers in the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, Orange and Los Angeles. Springs Charter Schools' administrative offices are located at 27740 Jefferson Avenue, Temecula, CA 92590. Phone: (951) 252-8800. Website: www.springscs.org.
