A motley crew of storytelling musicians brings Oscar Wilde's classic fairy tales to life in Tall Stories' magical new show.

Hauntingly beautiful tales told with original live music, imaginative storytelling and a generous dash of comedy makes this a fantastical journey through palaces, forests, and beyond.

Once upon a time there was a town that was dark and grey. The North Wind blew coldly through the streets and in the town square there was an empty platform where the statue of the Happy Prince had once stood. There is to be a new statue – but of whom? Which of the townsfolk is important enough to be immortalized in stone and raised above everyone else?

Characters from The Devoted Friend, The Nightingale and the Rose & The Birthday of the Infanta spring to life as the town's pompous mayor, the love-sick student, and the petulant princess all compete to become the new town statue, and the audience votes on whose values deserve to be celebrated.
