IF SO, WHICH ONE?

VENTURE ONLINE

This program may be a good fit if your family:

- Wants mostly asynchronous learning with some required live instruction daily
- Requires weekly work completion while providing flexibility with daily pacing to meet individual student needs
- Credentialed teacher is available to support learning, answer questions, and monitor student's progress
- Values optional in-person learning center classes

Learning experience highlights:

- Daily live instruction for core content areas
- Balance of independence and teacher guidance
- Teachers and/or instructional aides available for support and optional small group intervention

This program may feel challenging if:

- Your child needs live teacher guidance for most of the day
- You are seeking a fully structured, synchronous schedule
- You prefer your student work less independently

VIRTUAL ACADEMY

This program may be a good fit if your family:

- Wants students online with a teacher for most of the school day
- Prefers a highly structured, synchronous learning environment
- Can support daily attendance, focus, and engagement

Learning experience highlights:

- Majority of the day spent in live instruction
- Frequent required small-group intervention when needed
- Strong emphasis on guided instruction and accountability

This program may feel challenging if:

- Your family needs scheduling flexibility
- Your child thrives with independent or self-paced learning

MONTESSORI VOYAGE

This program may be a good fit if your family:

- Values Montessori-inspired, child-led, hands-on learning
- Can provide daily oversight and direct instructional support
- Wants a holistic approach to learning completed at home

Learning experience highlights:

- Mostly asynchronous learning with required teacher direction
- Emphasis on independence with caregiver involvement
- Required support sessions when scheduled

This program may feel challenging if:

- You are looking for frequent live instruction throughout the day
- You need a highly structured, teacher-directed schedule

CONNECTIONS ACADEMY

This program may be a good fit if your family:

- Wants a structured, standards-aligned, self-paced digital curriculum
- Is comfortable with primarily asynchronous learning
- Values frequent teacher check-ins and progress monitoring

Learning experience highlights:

- Limited required live sessions with additional options available
- Regular one-on-one progress meetings
- Scheduled intervention and daily office hours

This program may feel challenging if:

- Your child needs daily live instruction
- You prefer a hands-on or child-led learning approach
